DA Charges Attempted Voluntary Manslaughter in Chino Shooting

San Bernardino, CA – Today, San Bernardino County District Attorney Michael A. Ramos announced that his office filed a charge of Attempted Voluntary Manslaughter against San Bernardino County Sheriff's Deputy Ivory Webb in the Chino Officer-Involved Shooting of Elio Carrion in Chino, CA. In addition to the Attempted Voluntary Manslaughter charge, there were two special allegations filed: Infliction of Great Bodily Injury and Use of a Firearm. These charges carry a maximum penalty of 18 years, 6 months in State Prison. In addition to the charges filed against Webb, the District Attorney's Office filed charges against Luis Escobedo, the driver of the corvette in which Carrion was riding. Those charges are: Attempting to Evade a Peace Officer While Driving Recklessly, a felony and Driving Under the Influence, a misdemeanor. The maximum penalty for these charges is 3 years in State Prison and 6 months in County Jail for the DUI. Both men are expected to surrender themselves to the court on Wednesday, March 8, 2006.
